

Plantation St Remy - Saint Lucia

Built in the 1940's as a summer retreat for a prominent French colonial family, St. Remy house, surrounded by tropical gardens, is situated on a 27 acre cocoa and citrus plantation which offers stunning panoramic views of the famed Pitons and the Caribbean sea.

St. Remy Plantation is a unique vacation spot nestled in the lush, green hills of south west St. Lucia, just outside the historic town of Soufrière.

It is ideal for nature-lovers. Bird-watchers will also be delighted; St. Remy's gardens teem with countless species!
