

Greece - Paxos - Daphne Villas

1 Villa of 1 double bed 2 single beds
1 Villa of 4 single beds

The Alati coastline of Paxos, halfway between Gaios and Loggos, is probably the most attractive location on the island.

Hillsides of pine, olive and cypress slope gradually to a cluster of beaches with clear water ideal for swimming and snorkelling. The situation is secluded and quiet.

The Daphne Villas are set in a beautiful terraced garden in the middle of a small forest of pine trees. The Villas have been finished to a high standard and are spacious and comfortable.

Views from wide, private terraces are of the open sea towards the Greek mainland. A private pathway from the garden leads to a beach in two minutes. A private boat can be moored off the beach below during the day, and at night in either Loggos or Gaios: a boat journey of ten minutes.

This is a quiet, peaceful part of the island. Loggos can be reached in fifteen minutes by car and the small village of Fontana, just ten minutes by car, has a good taverna with traditional accompaniment from local musicians, café and bakery.
